TITLE: LET ME TAKE YOU ON A JOURNEY

QUOTE: “Find Joy in the Journey” Thomas S. Monson

OBJECTIVES FOR THE WEEK:

This week is about concentrating on how you present your ideas to people. Look at what you are going to present and break it down into a journey with a before, a during and an after. This beginning, middle and end will allow you to break it down. The before is the build up, the during is the moment itself and the after is how it continues, the effect it has and how you are going to take things forward.
Make them big titles and use them regularly.
